

The ePARSL project organizational chart

The ePARSL project organizational management team includes the Principal Investigator. She provides general oversight of the project. The principal investigator will be supported by an Infectious Disease Physician from the University of Sierra Leone, an Epidemiologist from the National Surveillance Program of the Ministry of Health and a Microbiologist from a private laboratory (Premium Medical Services).

